

Beverly High Rye Collaborates with Nobu LA to Celebrate Its One Year Anniversary on World Whiskey Day

Hi <<First>>, hope all is well.

For The Beverly High Rye's first-year anniversary, the same day as World Whiskey Day, the American brand is introducing a special cocktail. The whiskey-based Nobu Los Angeles exclusive, "Clouds Over Beverly," nods to the lavish experience Beverly Spirits provides.

The Beverly High Rye is a luxury whiskey exquisitely crafted to perfection, offering an unparalleled expression of refinement. Awarded gold medals in the New York and San Francisco Spirits Competitions, Beverly High Rye represents mastery of the blending technique—focusing on unique craftsmanship, design, and flavor.

Here are some facts about Beverly High Rye:

- Made with an award-winning blend of artisanal straight bourbon and rye whiskeys, the spirit is inspired by the Hollywood atmosphere of high-cost living and sophistication.
- Beverly High Rye is created using only the finest barrels hand selected from Iowa and Indiana.
- Crafted and bottled at 96 Proof at Cedar Ridge Distillery, one of America's most prominent family-owned distilleries in recent years.
- The balanced flavor profile includes cinnamon, nutmeg, and brown sugar, complemented by a rich mouthfeel and a smooth finish full of caramel, toffee, and candied pecans.
- Introduced the blended technique to Los Angeles luxury-based on a differentiated mix and style that Andrew Borenzweig, LA-based founder and CEO, aimed to create.
- Committed to sustainability by planting one tree in partnership with Trees for the Future for every bottle sold.

Price: $59.99-$69.99 per bottle.
